

Creswick Forest

In case of SI Failure,	use manual punch in	these boxes
1	2	3

scale 1: 20 000
contour interval 5m

MapRun

where you can ride:

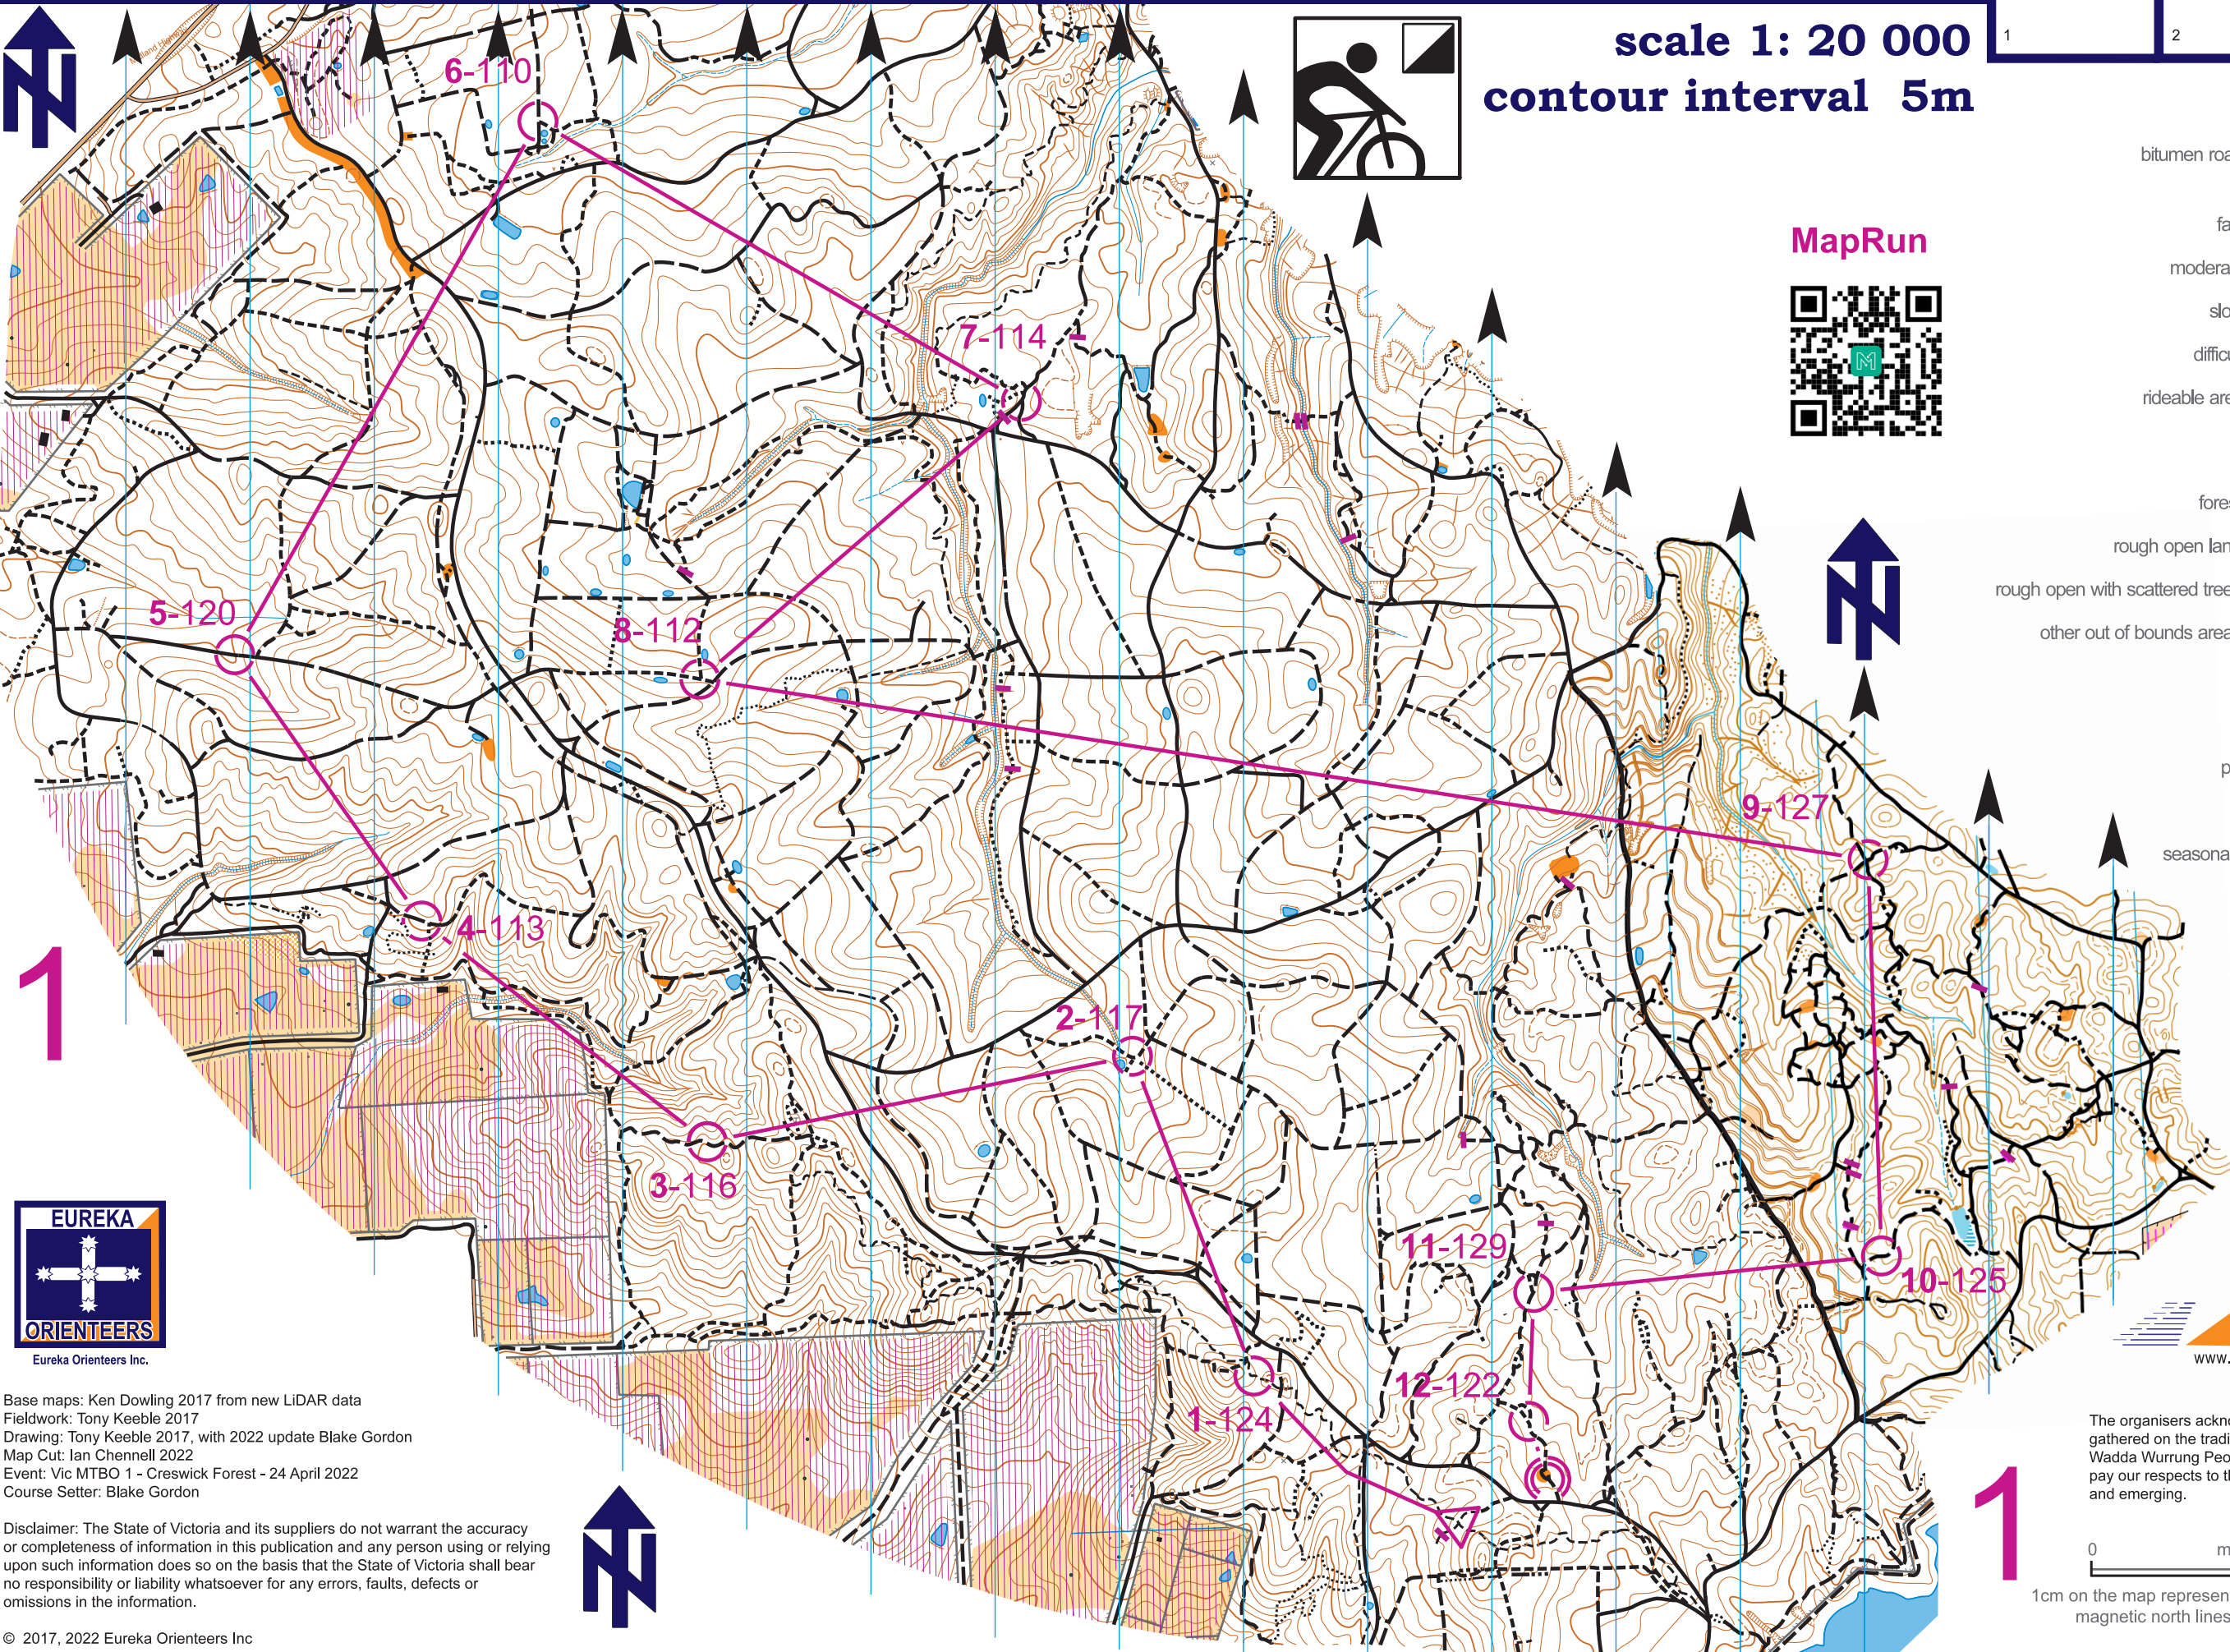

major	minor
bitumen road	—
fast	>1.5m — <1.5m
moderate	—
slow	—
difficult	—
rideable area	—

and where you can't:

forest	—
rough open land	—
rough open with scattered trees	—
other out of bounds areas	—

other symbols:

cliff, fence	—
pond, building	—
watercourse	—
seasonal watercourse	—
obstacle	—

Base maps: Ken Dowling 2017 from new LiDAR data
Fieldwork: Tony Keeble 2017
Drawing: Tony Keeble 2017, with 2022 update Blake Gordon
Map Cut: Ian Chennell 2022
Event: Vic MTBO 1 - Creswick Forest - 24 April 2022
Course Setter: Blake Gordon

Disclaimer: The State of Victoria and its suppliers do not warrant the accuracy or completeness of information in this publication and any person using or relying upon such information does so on the basis that the State of Victoria shall bear no responsibility or liability whatsoever for any errors, faults, defects or omissions in the information.

© 2017, 2022 Eureka Orienteers Inc

The organisers acknowledge that we are gathered on the traditional land of Wadda Wurrung People and we honour and pay our respects to their elders past, present and emerging.

0 metres 1000
1cm on the map represents 200m on the ground
magnetic north lines are 2cm (400m) apart